

Claims

I claim:

A method of providing funds with attributes that are validated comprising:

a Point of Sale method that accepts instruments of value and attributes such as geographical location and age are validated and verified.

a means of storing funds in an electronic accessible form an instrument that contains information to facilitate access to said funds.